SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR, BUILDER OF STEAM ENGINES AND GENERAL MACHINIST. The above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.
Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.
The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:
"AUBRY, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.
"Mr. SILAS BURNS—Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The ENGINE, as to FINISH and STRENGTH, PERFORMANCE and DURABILITY, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The MILLS run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot, in 3¾ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes too many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c., JONES & BARBEE."

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA, FRANKLIN COUNTY. SUPERIOR COURT OF LAW, Fall Term, A. D. 1853. MARY UPPERMAN vs. JAMES H. UPPERMAN—Petition for Divorce.—It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that notice has been duly issued to James H. Upperman, to appear at Fall-Term of the said Court, A. D. 1853, and by the return of the Sheriff of the County of Franklin aforesaid, that he, the said Sheriff, delivered the said notice at the last residence of the said James H. Upperman, in the County of Franklin aforesaid, in due time; and the said James H. Upperman failing to appear and answer as he was required to do, was solemnly called out on his said notice by the said Sheriff; and it also appearing to the satisfaction of the said Court, that the said James H. Upperman is a non-resident of this State, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the North-Carolina Standard and Louisburg News for three months, for James H. Upperman to appear before the Honorable Judge, at the Court to be held for the County of Franklin, at the Court-house, in the town of Louisburg, on the Second Monday after the Fourth Monday in March next, then and there to plead, answer or demur to said Petition, or the same will be taken pro confesso as to him, and tried accordingly.

NORTH CAROLINA SIX PER CENT STATE BONDS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, N. C. }
January 11th, 1854. }

SEALED proposals will be received at this office until 10 o'clock, A. M., of the 28th of February next, for the purchase of $500,000

of Bonds issued by the STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
These Bonds will bear date the FIRST OF JANUARY, 1854, and will run THIRTY YEARS—they will have Coupons attached, and the interest of SIX PER CENT PER ANNUM will be payable on the first days of January and July of each year.
Both interest and principal will be payable at THE BANK OF THE REPUBLIC, in the City of New York, unless when the purchaser may prefer to have them payable at the Treasury of North Carolina.
They are issued under the authority of the Legislature of North Carolina, for the construction of the NORTH CAROLINA RAIL ROAD, and in addition to the faith of the State, all the Stocks held by the State in said Road and the Dividends from said Stocks, are expressly pledged for their redemption.
THESE BONDS ARE BY EXPRESS ENACTMENT EXEMPTED FROM TAXATION.
They will be issued in sums of $1,000 or $5,000 as parties may wish.
Parties bidding will please address their letters, endorsed "Proposals for North Carolina State Bonds" to the undersigned at Raleigh, North Carolina.
THE BIDS WILL BE OPENED at 10 o'clock, A. M. 28th FEBRUARY NEXT, at this office, in the presence of the Governor, Secretary, Comptroller of State and of George W. Mordecai President of the Bank of the STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
The undersigned reserves the right of accepting such bids, in whole or in part as he may deem most advantageous to the State.
Successful Bidders will be required, as soon as informed of the acceptance of their Bids, to deposit in Bank, the amount, of their Bids with the accrued interest from the first instant, to the credit of the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina.
This deposit may be made, in either the BANK OF THE REPUBLIC, NEW YORK, the BANK OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, or the BANK OF CAPE FEAR, RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA.
Documents showing the great resources of the State and the small amount of her indebtedness, can be had on application at this office, or to Messrs. BROWN & DE ROSSETT of the city of New York.
D. W. COURTS,
PUBLIC TREASURER
OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STOP AND LOOK! On Monday, the 13th of February next, I shall offer to the highest bidder, my very desirable Tract of Land, containing 450 acres, situated in Franklin County, five miles east of Louisburg, on the Warrenton Road, and half a mile from the Halifax Road, leading from Louisburg. The Lands are easy to cultivate, free from rocks and well watered, and produces cotton, corn, and especially tobacco, equal to any lands in this part of the country. Some of the bottom land grows from 10 to 12 barrels of corn per acre. There is also in the yard a well dug through a solid rock, containing as good water as there is in the State. There is also on the premises a commodious two-story building, containing five rooms, four of which having fire places, with all necessary out-buildings, &c. &c. As for beauty, elegance and health, it cannot be surpassed by any situation in North Carolina. Come and see and you will agree with me.
At the same time I shall sell my entire stock—say 75 head hogs, 30 or 40 head sheep, 5 or 6 horses, and a stock of cattle, together with farming utensils, one four-horse wagon and gear, new, one two-horse do., one ox cart, and one yoke of oxen, household and kitchen furniture, corn, oats, and rye, fodder, &c., also, a first rate 40 saw gin, a fan and thrasher, and barouch and harness, &c.
Credit on the Land one, two, and perhaps three years.
Terms made known on the day of sale. I will take pleasure in showing the property to any one who may wish to examine before the day of sale.
JOS. BRIDGERS.

FACT vs. FICTION.—JUST PUBLISHED, THE OLD BREWERY, and the NEW MISSION AT THE FIVE POINTS, By the Ladies of the Mission. The Publishers take pleasure in inviting the attention of the moral world to this charming production as one of the most remarkable ever offered to the public; and they confidently present it as one of the most touching and impressive volumes which have fallen from the press since the first issue of Mr. Warren's "Diary of a Physician." The papers composing this work are not mere fancy sketches, written for the purpose of a simple commercial speculation, but the written histories of fallen ones who have been missed; of lost ones who have been reclaimed; of Idleness which has been led to Industry; of Drunkenness which has thrown away the Cup; of Poverty which has put on the garb of Comfort; of Despair which has begun again to Hope; of Ignorance which has crept out of Darkness up to Light; and of Sinful Weakness which has thrown off Falsehood, Crime and Shame, and now walks firmly forth in all a Christian's strength. The volume overflows with incidents which are real; with pictures drawn, not from fancy, but from life—the whole invested with a freshness which can only come from the vital fount of truth. As a whole the publishers present it as one of the truthfulest mirrors of human weakness, infirmity and suffering, and of the most sublime and self-sacrificing Christian faithfulness and heroism ever offered to the public. IS FREE SUFFRAGE DEAD?

Some of our Whig friends (who vehemently declared year before last that John Kerr was "a better Free Suffrage man than Davy Reid,") have recently been congratulating themselves that Free Suffrage is dead; or, to use their own classic and refined expression, "The Free Suffrage hobby has been rode to death." Much as we are indisposed, in their overwhelming affliction, to disabuse their minds of an idea that affords them a ray of comfort, we must assure them they look at the matter cross-eyed—it is Free Suffrage that has rode the Whig party to death. A principle as deeply rooted in the minds of a free people as Free Suffrage is rooted in the minds of the people of North Carolina, can never die. The intrigues of party—the old remnant of feudal aristocracy still lingering in the bosoms of a lordly few—may delay its consummation for a time, but it will ultimately prevail.

It is true that this subject is one on which party lines need not be drawn; but it is one against which the weight of the Whig party has been cast. We all remember the open and avowed hostility manifested by the Whig papers and orators during the canvass of 1848, when it was first brought prominently before the people by Gov. Reid. The result of that campaign convinced them that it had taken a hold upon the hearts of the people, and in 1850 they tried to get round in favor of it. But unfortunately for them and their sincerity, they sent forth the same man to stump the State for it, that they had sent out against it two years before. The people listened and said, "Though he now blows hot, he used to blow cold, and we will none of him." A Democratic triumph was the result, and a large majority of the members of the Legislature had pledged themselves before the people to support Free Suffrage; for even in Whig counties, Whig candidates found it necessary to make this pledge in order to insure their election.

And here we approach a very interesting period in the history of Free Suffrage. The Legislature met; in due time the Free Fuffrage bill was introduced, and it passed its first and second readings without difficulty. But all at once objection was made to the mode of obtaining it. An attempt was made to humbug the Democratic members of the West into a meeting "irrespective of party," and a famous paper, afterwards known as the "Western Address," was issued, and the country flooded with it. This Address was signed by men who had gone to Raleigh pledged in favor of Free Suffrage, and who had twice voted for it, but opposed it on its third reading. They took ground for a Convention, and suggested several particulars in which they desired to see the Constitution altered. This was probably done to make a show of leaping ahead of the Democrats in favor of reforms, thinking thereby to change the popular current to their side; or, as is equally probable, this was considered the only way by which Free Suffrage could be defeated; for Mr. Manly, by his advocacy of "white basis," had arrayed the entire East and Centre against a Convention, and as a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Legislature was necessary to call a Convention, it must have been plain to every one that no convention could be called. Favoring a Convention, then, was opposing Free Suffrage; and objecting to the mode was an indirect way of opposing a principle they dared not oppose directly.

But notwithstanding all this, the Free Suffrage bill passed that Legislature by the constitutional majority, and stood over for final action at the next session.

In the meantime the Whigs selected, as their candidate to run after Gov. Reid, a certain individual by the name of John Kerr, who was fish in the East, flesh in the Centre, and foul in the West; and nothing when it came to counting votes. He was for and against every thing in general, and Free Suffrage and "white basis" in particular; and if there had previously been any probability of obtaining a Convention, it would now have been impossible.

But the Legislature of 1852 met. In the House of Commons, the members of which were elected by all white freemen, the Free Suffrage bill again passed, and went to the Senate. Here, we are sorry to say, there was one Democrat opposed to it, and he, unfortunately had been made Speaker. This afforded the Whig members an opportunity of defeating the bill, and at the same time of apparently throwing the responsibility upon that Democrat, making him the scape-goat of their sins. To pass the Senate the bill must obtain 34 votes. 27 Democrats were ready to vote for it, and if it could get 7 Whig votes it would pass. But these 7 could not be found—only 6 of them supported it, thus, according to previous arrangement of a Whig caucus, as we have reason to believe, bringing the bill within reach of the casting vote of the Speaker, which vote they knew he would refuse to give. And immediately the cry was raised that the Democratic party was responsible for the defeat of Free Suffrage, as one member of that party could have saved it, but would not! Aye, but 16 Whigs voted against it, and any one of that 16 could also have saved it; and consequently the responsibility of the Whig party is 16 times greater than that of the Democratic party. 27 Democrats and 6 Whigs voted for the bill, and 16 Whigs, and not a single Democrat voted against it. This shows who defeated it, and tears away the flimsy gauze by which it was attempted to deceive the people into the belief that the Democratic party was responsible. Whigs killed Free Suffrage, but knowing they had outraged the popular will, they shrank from shouldering the responsibility.

But the principle is still the same, just and right, and it will yet triumph.

> "Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
> The eternal years of God are hers;"

and those who oppose it will but provoke their own downfall. Those who lay the flattering unction to their souls that "the hobby has been rode to death," deceive themselves. It will career proudly over the State this summer, from Cherokee to Currituck. The Whig papers may oppose it, if they will, and go for a Convention. This thing of a Convention has been talked about, and bills to provide for the call of one have been before the two last Legislatures; but they never received a bare majority, much less two-thirds. It is a scheme devised to defeat Free Suffrage, and the people know it. Salisbury Banner.

TWIN SISTERS—KANSAS AND NEBRASKA. From the proceedings of the Senate on Monday last, (says the Annapolis State Capitol Gazette of the 28th inst.) it appears that the bill organizing the Territory of Nebraska has been substituted by a bill organizing two Territories—Kansas and Nebraska. They both lie immediately west of the State and river of Missouri. Kansas extends from the 37th to the 40th parrallel of north latitude, 207¾ miles. Nebraska extends from the 40th to the 49th parallel, or to British America, 623½ miles. Both territories extend west to the Rocky mountains. Fort Leavenworth is to be the temporary seat of government for Kansas. The governor of Nebraska will convene the first legislative assembly at such place as may suit his pleasure.

This Compromise of 1850 takes precedence of all previous legislation inconsistent with its provisions and spirit. The people are recognized as sovereigns in fact as well as theory. By all the hard-fought fields—in the name of all the heroes of the revolution—in the name of all that is sacred in the democratic creed—LET THE PEOPLE RULE. The bill has been made the special order for Monday next, and every day hereafter until disposed of.

Judge Douglas and General Atchison deserve the cordial thanks of the entire population of the Union for their vindication of correct principles. The delegate from Nebraska is also entitled to high commendation for his services in behalf of the Territory that he so ably represents. Though there are three men now in Washington claiming the right to represent the Territory of Nebraska, Hon. Thomas Johnson has the regular certificate of election from Provisional Governor Walker, and is therefore, of course, the delegate, according to the record.

The intense excitement and the ground-swells of which we hear so much in certain quarters, are mere figments of a morbid and restless imagination. The clarion tones and irresistible logic of Douglas, Cass, Atchison, and their noble compeers in both houses, will silence the croaking, carping, hypocritical enemies of popular sovereignty. The President is at home; the cabinet a unit; the friends of equal rights, therefore, have nothing to fear. In conclusion, we repeat, in God's name, LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

GOOD. One of the New York "soft" papers says, the Adamantines have Bible sanction for their present position, for it says "the way of the transgressor is Hard!"

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN WAYNE.

According to previous notice, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Wayne was held in the Court House at Goldsboro', on Thursday last, it being the week of County Court. The meeting was organized by the appointment of C. H. Brogden Esq. to the chair, and W. A. Strong Secretary. The Chairman after delivering a short but pointed and appropriate address, appointed the following gentlemen to draught resolutions, suitable to the meeting:

W. K. Lane, W. T. Dortch, E. Sauls, Thos. Edwards and L. P. Cox.

After the committee had retired for the purpose of draughting resolutions, loud and enthusiastic calls were made for Eli W. Hall Esq., of Wilmington, to address the meeting, who responded in an able and eloquent manner embracing with the most happy effect, those important issues, which constitute the characteristic distinctions between the two great parties of our country. We have often heard of Mr. Hall as a gentleman of talents, and especially as an orator. He came up fully to the estimate which we had been led to form of him and we venture the prediction, that he will some day occupy a prominent and enviable position upon the political arena of Old North Carolina.

After Mr. Hall concluded, the committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It is proposed to hold a Convention in the City of Raleigh on the 19th day of April next, to nominate a Democratic Candidate for Governor of North Carolina: and whereas it is important that the county of Wayne should be represented in said Convention.

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint sixty Delegates to represent this County.

Resolved, That having full confidence in the prudence and wisdom of the proposed Convention of our party, we pledge ourselves to support the nominee of said Convention.

Resolved, That David S. Reid is entitled to the gratitude of the people of the State for the able and faithful manner in which he has discharged the duties of the Executive.

Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the Administration of Franklin Pierce, and that the principles set forth by him in his inaugural and first message, are the true principles of the Democratic party.

Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm the platforms of the Democratic party adopted by the last State and National Convention.

Resolved, That we are in favor of engrafting on the Constitution [illegible] State by Legislative enactment, the princi[illegible] free suffrage.

Resolved, That [illegible] der the principles above set forth, we have achieved in the last several elections, triumphs of which we are proud, and that under the guidance of said principles, we expect a signal victory in August next.

Resolved, That the public lands are common property of all the States of this Union, and should be held by the General Government as the Agent or trustee of the States, and should be sold at reasonable prices, and the proceeds arising therefrom, should go into the National Treasury to defray the expenses of the Government and to pay the public debt.

Resolved, That Wm. W. Holden Esq., editor of the Raleigh Standard, is a faithful, sound and uncompromising exponent of Democratic principles, and that his late course, in relation to the distribution of the Public Lands, merits and commands our most hearty approval.

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. Robert Strange, (of which we have just heard,) the State of North Carolina has lost one of its most distinguished citizens.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the N. C. Republican, and that other Democratic papers of the State copy.

The Chairman under the first Resolution, appointed the following gentlemen as delegates, viz: Wm. K. Lane, Wm. T. Dortch, Jno. V. Sherard, Wm. Robinson, Dr. Jno. W. Davis, Col. Jesse J. Baker, Wm. C. Bryan, Wm. B. Edmundson, Col. C. J. Nelson, S. D. Philips, Jno. J. Bradbury, Josiah Fields, Richard D. Hinsan, Haywood Ham, Jr., John Wooten, James H. Handley, Jas. M. Hines, Council Best, Giles Smith, Wm. Lewis, Zadcock L Thompson, Geo. Parks, Thos. Smith, Needham Smith, Etheldred, Sauls, Wm. Thompson, Sr., Wm. J. Exum, Bunyan Barnes, Amos J. Horn, Elias Bass, Col. Elias Barnes, Dr. A. G. Person, Col. Wm. Hooks, B. Barden, Col. Wm. Aycock, Jas. Hooks, Warren Aycock, Zadock M. L. Peacock, Hardy Yelverton, Thos. A. Deans, Dr. Gethro Murphrey, Maj. Jno. Cameron, E. R. Cox, Boaz F. Hooks, Sanders P. Cox, Everitt Smith, H. Grantham, Wm. R. Parker, C. A. Blackman, Jas. R. Parker, L. P. Lindsay, Jas. F. Kornegay, Lewis Whitfield, Dr. J. M. Davis, Elisha Pipkin, Thos. Edwards, Bryant H. Pate, Thos. T. Hollowell, DeWitt C. Sherard, Wm. N. Barnes.

The business of the meeting being concluded, upon motion, thanks were unanimously tendered to the officers of the meeting for their services, after which it adjourned sine die.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN GUILFORD.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Guilford County, held in the Court-house in Guilford, on the 21st of February, 1854, Daniel Hobbs, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Wilson S. Hill, jr., appointed Secretary.

On motion, Robert P. Dick, Jas. R. McLean, and William Coble, Esq'rs., were appointed to report resolutions, who after a short consultation submitted the following:

WHEREAS, We, the Democracy of Guilford County, have assembled for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent us in the Democratic State Convention to be held in Raleigh on the 19th of April next; and as we deem it right and proper to express our opinions on some questions of political interest we do therefore Resolve, That we fully approve of the Baltimore platform, as it contains the cardinal principles of our political faith.

Resolved, That we approve of the present administration, both in its domestic and foreign policy, and that we regard President Pierce as an able and pure American statesman and every way worthy of the high position he now so ably fills.

Resolved, That we have great confidence in the wisdom and sterling honesty of our Governor, D. S. REID; that for him, personally we have the kindest esteem, and is a man whom we delight to honor.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint twenty delegates to represent us in the Democratic State Convention, and that they are hereby instructed to vote for any man as a candidate for Governor, whether from the East, the West, or the Centre of the State if he is honest and true to the political principles which we cherish and advocate.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereupon the Chairman appointed the following delegates: Robert P. Dick, Esq., Col. Wm. A. Dunn, N. R. Sapp, Esq., Bamur Peeples, Thos. C. Albright, Esq., Anslem Reid, Esq., Jonathan W. Parker, Esq., Lewis Coble, Abner Apple, Esq., Wm. Coble, Esq., Lewis Starbuck, B. G. Graham, W. H. Reece, R. L. Patterson, Wm. Kirkman, Esq., Col. Sam'l L. Keys, Wilson S. Hill, jr., Esq., Col. H. C. Dick, W. R. Unthank, Jesse Thompson, Esq.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A GOOD WIFE. She loves her home, believing with Milton that

> "The wife where danger and dishonor lurks,
> Safest and seemliest by her husbrnd stays,
> Who guards her, or with her the worst endures."

The place of women is eminently at the fire side. It is at home you must see her to know what she is. It is less material what she is abroad; but what she is in the family circle is all important. It is bad merchandise in any department of trade to pay a premium for other men's opinions. In matrimony, he who selects a wife for the applause or wonder of his neighbors, is in a fair way toward domestic bankruptcy. Having got a wife there is but one rule—honor and love her. Seek to improve her understanding and her heart. Strive to make her more and more such a one as you can cordially respect. Shame on the brute in man's shape, who can affront or vex, not to say neglect, the woman who has embarked with him for life, "for better, for worse," and whose happiness, if severed from her smiles, must be unnatural and monstrous. In fine, I am proud of nothing in America so much as our American wives.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN HALIFAX.

Pursuant to public notice, a meeting of the Democrats of Halifax County was held at the Court House on Tuesday the 21st inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent said County in the State Convention at Raleigh on the 19th day of April next.

On motion of J. B. Batchelor, Esq., the meeting was organized by calling C. N. Webb, Esq., to the Chair and appointing Edward Conigland Secretary.

On motion, the Chairman named Dr. Littleberry Batchelor, Byron Hilliard, Esq., Dr. W. L. Johnson, Alfred White, and Hardy Pitts, Esq., a committee to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

During the absence of the committee, T. M. Arrington, Esq., delivered a short speech, replete with eloquence and humor, which enchained the attention of his audience, and gave evidence of rare talents as a popular orator.

When Mr. Arrington had concluded his speech the following resolutions were reported by the committee and read for the consideration of the meeting:

Resolved, That we approve of the Convention to be held at Raleigh on the 19th day of April next, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic Candidate for the office of Governor; and also that the Chairman of this meeting be requested to appoint twenty delegates to represent the County of Halifax in said Convention.

Resolved, That while we entertain a preference as to whom shall be the nominee of said Convention, yet, acting on the Democratic doctrine, "principles, not men" we refrain from expressing it, hereby pledging ourselves to give to the said nominee our cordial support.

Resolved, That the administration of State affairs by his Excellency, David S. Reid, has endeared him to our hearts—has redounded to the honor and prosperity of the State, and has proved him to possess the highest qualifications as a statesman.

Resolved, That the course pursued by President Pierce since his inauguration demands and receives our unqualified approval, and is such as his antecedents led us to anticipate; that his administration of the affairs of government gives proof not only of his sound Democratic principles, but, also, of his great ability and incorruptible integrity, and, consequently, that we have the highest confidence in him and in the distinguished citizens who compose his cabinet.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the last Baltimore Convention, is that on which we stand; that we recognise in the resolutions then passed the true principles of the Democratic party; and that we recognize in the resolutions passed at our last Democratic State Convention the principles which shall govern us as to State affairs—nor will we acknowledge any one as a Democrat who fails to sustain them.

The resolutions were submitted to the consideration of the meeting and were unanimously adopted.

Under the first resolution the following delegates were named by the Chair: L. H. B. Whitaker, Wm. H. Tillery, Capt. L. L. Savage, N. M. Long, Dr. W. L. Johnston, Dr. Chas. Gee, J. B. Batchelor, Dr. M. A. Wilcox, Jas. S. Snow, Byron Hilliard, Dr. W. L. Long, James V. Allen, Wm. A. Daniel, Dr. Thaddeus Davis, Dr. L. Batchelor, Dr. B. F. Whitaker, Col. T. P. Alston, Wm. Hill, Col. S. Whitaker, James Pearson.

On motion the names of the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list of delegates.

It was further resolved that any Democrat of Halifax County who may be in Raleigh during the session of the Convention shall be at liberty and is requested to act as a delegate, and that each delegate named in case it may not be in his power to attend shall be at liberty to appoint an alternate.

On motion,

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Roanoke Republican and Raleigh Standard, and the North Carolina Patriot be requested to copy.

The meeting then adjourned.

AMUSING REMINISCENCE. In the neighborhood of Charlotte, North Carolina, (says the Charleston Standard,) there lived until within the last two years, an aged lady, whose many recollections of early life were very interesting. One, we remember, afforded us great amusement. Gates had been defeated, the shattered fragments of his army had been swept like the debris of a tempest past her secluded home; her father and brothers were all out under some partisan leader, the tories were forming a nucleus of organization about the Waxhaw; and supposing this would attract the attention of her relatives, and seeing a young man riding from that direction, she was told by her mother to learn the news from him.

She was a buxom lass of sixteen summers, educated in the freedom of the country, and being tolerably assured of her ability to cope with any body, was nothing loth to go, and gave us the following story of the meeting:—The lad seemed an honest, well-meaning body, but not much in the way of looks. He was thin and awkward, and billious; and rode a grass fed colt that reeled about so, I wondered how in the world it carried him. "How do you do, sir?" says I. "How do you do, ma'am?" says he. Says I, "Which way did you come from?" "I came from the Waxhaws." "Did you see or hear anything of our people down there?" "No," says he, "but there are some tories about there, and we pops them down sometimes." Thinks I, you look like a funny fellow to pop anybody down, but I did not say so; I just asked him, "where are you going?" "I'm going to uncle McDowell's. I've had the chills a long time, and I want to stay up here until I get well." "And what is your name?" My name is Andy Jackson."

The old lady had to the day of her death the appearance of this young man so indelibly impressed upon her mind, that she could never realize his importance, and it always struck her as excessively whimsical and ridiculous that such a customer could become President of the United States.

She had the same difficulty with respect to Mr. Polk.

She had known him when a child; he would stay for months at her house, and go to school with her children, and so easily outdone and so put upon by other boys of his age, that she could never form a high opinion of his abilities. She always, from the force of habit, called him little Jemmy, and we think never mentioned him in connection with the presidency without feelings of irrepressible amusement.

Poor old lady! she stood for eighteen years alone in the world, her children and grand children all were dead, and none could hear her indulging in reminiscences of her early life without a sense of how great a blessing it was to her, to have so rich a store of early memories.

GOLDSBOROUGH. We know of no town in the State that seems to be in so flourishing a condition as Goldsborough. You can hear the artizans hammer from dawn till twilight, and almost every lot on Rail road Avenue, is occupied by a handsome building. The Court House is on a beautiful location and we should not be surprised if it was the most handsome building of the kind in the State. Mrs. Griswold's Hotel is an edifice that would do credit to any town, and is managed precisely the right way (and we never saw a more attentive and accomplished clerk and superintendant than Mr. D. G. Lougee, who seems to have been made just for that business.) The Female College too, under the superintendence of Rev. James H. Brent is another beautiful and commodious structure, with accommodation for 150 boarders. This, by the way, is a new enterprise, and one which the citizens of Eastern and Southeastern Carolina ought to encourage, the exalted reputation of Mr. Brent being a sufficient guaranty that it will be properly managed, while the healthiness of the location is a matter that is settled beyond cavil. Upon this subject we shall have more to say hereafter.

One more evidence of the prosperity of Goldsborough is, the fact that three newspapers are published in the town, and all doing well. We don't know when we have seen a place that we liked better, and if it could be moved to Weldon we should be amazingly pleased. Weldon Patriot.

The number of persons engaged in the war of the Revolution, was two hundred and thirty-one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one. Of this number, there are less than fourteen hundred now living, whose ages average nearly ninety years. Seventy three died during the past year.

THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS.—1st SESSION.

SATURDAY, Feb. 25.

SENATE.

Mr. Stuart moved to take up the resolution directing the committee on commerce to report without delay a bill making appropriation for the improvement of rivers and harbors. He said that there was no use in keeping up the system of appropriations for improvements of rivers and harbors if the appropriations were so wide apart as to be useless, and they could not await the House in this matter.

Mr. Cass was in favor of continuing these improvements by the general government. He had radical objections to the transfer of such a duty to the States, and to the levying of tonnage duties.

Mr. Hamlin said that he desired that the resolution should be postponed till Tuesday, because it proposed a change of the universal practice of originating all appropriation bills in the House. Several Senators desired to be heard before the matter was decided by the Senate.

The resolution was then postponed till Tuesday next.

The joint resolution of acknowledgment to the rescuers of the survivors of the San Francisco was taken up, and postponed until next Monday.

Mr. Cass said he had observed to-day an article in one of the London papers which he desired to bring to the attention of the Senate. He referred to a speech delivered by Lord Clarendon, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from which he read a few lines. It is one of the most extraordinary declarations, he said, that has been made in his day. What Lord Clarendon said is this; after speaking of the good understanding between England and France, connected with the Turkish question, he adds:

"Your lordship will be glad also to hear that the union of the two governments is not confined to the eastern question, but that the habit of a good understanding between them has become general on all matters of policy, and extends to all parts of the world; and that on the question of policy there is no part of the world, in either hemisphere, with regard to which we are not entirely in accord."

Now there is no misunderstanding that statement. It is intended to be a notice to us that France and England have come to an agreement with respect to the schemes of aggrandizement of the United States, and mean to stop it. It means Cuba. It means any place where we wish to procure the acquisition of territory.

It is useless, Mr. President, for us to tamper any longer with these questions. It is useless to say that we shall not take our place among the nations of the world, and declare, when interpolations are made into the system of the law of nations, regulating the powers of the world, that we have no right to be heard. How an entangling alliance is made by the declaration of the American Republic that the powers of the earth have no right to interpolate a foreign and tyrannical system into the laws of nations, he could not see. We should have to come to this point. He had no doubt that the President and his cabinet are well disposed. He had no doubt that they will take high ground, and support it with all the means in their power; but they want more than that. They want the moral support of the American legislature; they want the moral support of the American people, and that support should be given by our declaration. The sooner we make it the better.

The matter was discussed briefly by Senators Mason, Badger and Weller, the latter remarked that he had seen several wars gotten up on the floor of the Senate with Great Britain; but he hoped they would settle the Nebraska question before we seriously involve this government in a war with any government. Settle our domestic affairs, those which belong to our own fireside, and then we may be ready to break a lance with Great Britain.

The Nebraska bill was then taken up. Mr. Butler finished his speech, and Mr. Brown, and Mr. Dodge of Iowa, also spoke in favor of the bill. Mr. Cass obtained the floor for Monday, and the Senate adjourned.

The House was not in session to-day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1854.

SENATE.

Mr. Seward presented petitions from Allen county, Michigan, against the Nebraska bill. Also the proceedings of a meeting of the citizens of Albion and Leroy, New York; and petitions from Tioga and Ontario counties, New York, to the same effect.

Mr. Sumner presented two petitions from New Hampshire, two from Massachusetts, and one from Ohio of the same kind.

Mr. Everett presented the memorial of 120 clergymrn of Worcester, Massachusetts, against the Nebraska bill.

Mr. Smith presented similar petitions from Connecticut.

Mr. Fish, also from New York.

Mr. Wade, also from Ohio.

Mr. Thompson, also from New Jersey.

Mr Brodhead, also from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Chase, also from Ohio, New York, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Mr. Chase presented petitions from New York and Ohio. for the repeal of the fugitive slave act, the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and the repeal of all laws for taking slaves in payment of debts due to us.

These petitions were all laid on the table.

The bill granting land to Louisiana, for a railroad from Shreveport to the Mississippi river, was taken up and passed.

The bill granting land to Wisconsin, for a railroad from Madison to the Mississippi river, was taken up and passed.

The bill granting land to Louisiana and Mississippi, for certain railroads therein, was taken up and passed.

The bill granting land to Iowa, for certain railroads therein, was taken up and passed.

The Nebraska bill was then taken up, and Gen. Cass is speaking at the time my dispatch closes.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Davis, of Indiana said it was well known the printer to the House is dead. Conceiving the office now vacant, he offered a resolution that the House will to-morrow at 2 o'clock proceed to elect a printer to serve for the remainder of the present Congress in place of Robert Armstrong, deceased.

Mr. Dean moved to postpone an election until Monday next.

Mr. Campbell suggested that it come off now, as he had understood one caucus has been held.

Mr. Dean said there was no haste for a public printer and the House ought to have the opportunity to make up their minds as to voting on the subject.

Mr. Stanton, of Ky., thought the election ought not to be postponed beyond next Tuesday, as printing was constantly required to be done.

Mr. Dean repeated that members ought to have time to consider and inquire whether any new tests are to be imposed.

Mr. Jones, of Tenn., did not consider the public printer an officer of the House, and moved the resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. Davis, of Indiana, differed from Mr. Jones, and quoted the law to show that the printer is an elective officer as much as a speaker, doorkeeper, sergeant at-arms, or postmaster.

The House refused to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Dean moved to elect the printer on Wednesday, and the proposition is being discussed at the time I close my dispatch.

2 o'clock, P. M.—The resolution to go into the election of a printer to-morrow was finally adopted, by 10 majority.

The Rev. Mr. Kirk has dipped into politics again, and invokes prayers for the President and Senator Douglas. He is the same reverend minister who was so fierce in electioneering for Harrison in the "hard cider campaign," when he uttered an enormous libel upon the public press generally, in saying that it had become so profligate that the people placed no reliance upon it, and hence the necessity for mass meetings to learn the truth from the lips of public orators. The reverend gentleman has followed the advice of Sumner, Chase, Giddings & Co., and converted his pulpit into a political rostrum to oppose the Nebraska bill. Boston Post.

From our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1854.

Heavy Snow—Progress of the Territorial Bills in Congress—Pressure of the outsiders unavailing—Badger [illegible] his former friends—Douglas vs. Cole and Burke—Who is Cole answered—Progress of Committee on Naval Affairs, and the Secretary of the Navy—Appropriation of $200,000 for the Cape Fear—Deaths—General Armstrong—Fight among Honorables, &c.

The weather here for the last week has been very severe. There has been the heaviest fall of snow ever known to some of us, and rarely equalled in the recollection of "the oldest inhabitant." But there has been some days of bright sunshine, which only tend to increase the intense brightness of the heavy banks of snow that still incumber the highways, and render approach to and departure from the capitol very difficult. Yet the business of the government has gone on in its wonted channel. The great bill for organization of the Territories of Nebraska and Kansas is still before the Senate, eliciting the talents, learning and eloquence of that distinguished body. Judge Butler, of South Carolina, speaks to-day on the subject. It is believed that on Monday next the vote will be taken, and, on that day, as announced by Judge Douglas, he will sum up the debate, when the bill will pass by a triumpant vote; as it is well understood that not more than ten votes (consisting of the abolition and freesoilers, with Houston) can be drummed up against it. This will be a proud triumph for the country, and a marked era in the history of our Republic. There has been and still is, a considerable outside pressure here on members from Quaker Committees and others, to deter them from their duty. But the principle of allowing men to act for themselves, and regulate their matters in their own way, and the impropriety of Congress acting on questions not committed to their power, by the Constitution, are too powerful to allow any such interference. The efforts of the Ohio Senators to produce excitement in their State have proved complete failures. The Legislature of Ohio has spoken the true sentiments of the people and of the Constitution. I hear the Northern Whigs abusing very roundly your Senator for his masterly speech on this bill—to which no reply has been made in the Senate, and to which none can be made. This I think is the best compliment that he could desire, and should assure him that he has acted as a faithful and true representative of an honest constituency. Judge Douglas has too received his portion of their abuse. Letters of the most scandalous character, attacks in newspapers from many sources, his character maligned, and his motives misrepresented—all have no effect upon him. When anything worthy of notice from a respectable source is brought to his attention he meets the point with fact and argument that literally demolishes his antagonist. You should copy his reply to the attack of Gov. Cole, now a resident of Philadelphia, who was the private Secretary of Madison, and who sent him to Illinois as Governor of the Territory when her people were just merging into a State. The people of Illinois not appreciating his merits, did not promote him, and he left the State. He charged in his letter through the National Intelligencer that Judge Douglas misrepresented the facts of the case, and violated the integrity of history in his great speech. But by plain extracts from the records of Illinois and the history of that day Judge Douglas proved that Cole was as ignorant of the true history, as he was arrogant in his assertions and impudent in his conduct. His reply to Burke of the New Hampshire Gazette is equally scathing and triumphant. The thunder from the pulpit in Abolition sections of our union will only tend to make him more dear to the hearts of the American people.

The Committee on Naval Affairs in the House, in conference with the Senate Committee, have perfected a bill for the re-organization of the Navy in accordance with the sagacious recommendations of Mr. Dobbin—providing a retired list for worn out veterans, promotions according to merit, and increased pay to seamen and identify them more closely with the service. There has been, I see from some of the Whig newspapers in your State, some ill natured complaints against the Secretary for some removals at Norfolk. The chief objection with many is the tolerance which Mr. Dobbin uses towards his political opponents. His temper, constitutionally uniform and kind, has been used to favor rather than proscribe. It is well known that Governor Graham as Secretary of the Navy appointed many clerks to high salaries in the Navy Department from North Carolina, and Mr. Dobbin has allowed them to continue; and the charge of proscription is made with bad grace by those who themselves exercised their power so unmercifully.

The appropriation of $200,000 for the Cape Fear River passed the Senate without a dissenting vote. It is now in the House, as a separate and distinct bill. Its fortunes could not be in hands more safe and active than Mr. Ashe, and whose popularity with the members would more likely secure its final passage. North Carolina has rarely been an applicant much less a recipient of the favors of the general government for the improvement of her harbors, on a coast the most dangerous on our continent. It is to be hoped that Mr. Ashe as well as Dr. Shaw with Nag's Head Inlet may be successful. One of your members, Hon. Burton Craige, has suffered very severely with something like a Bronchial affection, arising from this variable and severe climate, which has kept him confined for the week. This will account for his absence from the House. But he is now convalescent, and will be in the House on Monday.

The community here were much shocked at the news of the death of your countryman Judge Strange. His service in the Senate created him many acquaintances, and his kind manners and social qualities made him "troops of friends." His death is a national loss, The death of Gen. Armstrong, which occured on Thursday evening last, has added to this feeling. He was universally respected for his chivalric disposition, amiable temper and generous impulses. He was a native of Virginia, and was 63 years of age. His father removed with him when quite a lad to Knox county, Tennessee, and he was the confident and friend of Jackson, under whom whom he served in the war of 1812 and the Indian wars. He had held the office of postmaster at Nashville, under Van Buren, and Consul to Liverpool under Mr. Polk, and was desperately wounded in battle at Enotochopco creek. As a momento of his gallantry Gen. Jackson in his will bequeathed to him the pistols and sword worn by him throughout his military career, well satisfied as the will of Jackson expresses, "that in his hands they will never be disgraced—never used without occasion—nor shielded without honor." The House of Representatives, to which he was the printer, adjourned over to attend his funeral.

A rather disgraceful flare up took place on Wednesday evening between two honorables—the late Senator from Alabama (Clemens) and a member of the House (Hon. Willie P. Harris.) A friend offered to introduce them. Harris declined. Clemens stated that he would make him suffer for it. To which Harris replied angrily. Thereupon Clemens drew his revolver and struck him a severe blow which felled him to the floor. Friends interfered and seperated them, but the matter does not end here.

I notice from the report of the Board of Surgeons that Dr. L'Engle, who has been, I believe, a resident of your city, has passed as an Assistant Surgeon in the Army. He will be appointed as soon as a vacancy occurs, or the bill for raising the three Regiments passes Congress.

I notice that in the western papers of your State that a drove of Turkies 1600 strong passed Salisbury en route for Charleston. If some of your farmers could make a similar excursion here it would be a speculation mutually beneficial and agreeable. They sell here, inferior at that, for $3,00 and $3,50 a pair.

I hope in my next to give you the agreeable information of the triumph of the Nebraska and Kansas bill through the Senate, and its progress and prospects if not its passage through the House. At any rate I will give you all the sayings and doings that may occur in the metropolis from this day to that.

THE NEW PORTRAIT GALLERY

C. B. HAVENS, Daguerrean Artist, and
O. P. COPELAND, Portrait and Miniature Painter,

RESPECTFULLY INVITE VISITORS TO THEIR Portrait Gallery, on Fayetteville St., in the new brick building recently erected by W. J. & A. S. Lougee.

Mr. Haven's has A SPLENDID SKY-LIGHT and feels confident that with his improved Instruments he can now produce Daguerreotype likenesses equal to any in the country, and with a very low bow he therefore solicits and hopes to receive a liberal patronage.

Mr. Copeland also takes occasion respectfully to inform those who may desire to perpetuate the likeness of the "human face divine," that he will take great pleasure in serving them at his snug little studio, adjoining the rooms of Mr. Havens.

Mr. Copeland will visit the surrounding country at any time for the purpose of taking family portraits, if it should be desired, and will also pledge himself to make good portraits (of departed friends) from Daguerreotype pictures.

Greenville, Feb. 11, 1854. 30—2t.

TO THE NEXT OF KIN AND THE DISTRIBUTEES OF EDWARD HERNDON, LATE OF CAMPBELL CO., VA.—Said Edward Herndon died in the year 1845, without issue, and by his will, after certain specific bequests, he directed that the balance of his estate should be equally divided between his sisters, Sarah Samuels, Elizabeth Baker, Catharine Durham, Mary Herndon and his brother, Reuben Herndon. This will was duly probated in Campbell County Court, and Y. W. Robertson qualified as Executor.

A suit has been instituted in the Circuit Court of Campbell county, by John T. Irving and wife against the Ex'or and legatees of said Edward Herndon for a settlement and division of said estate. And it appearing from the Com'rs report in that cause, that all of the residuary legatees died in the life-time of the testator, it is contended that said residuary legacy has lasped, and is to be divided equally among the distributees of said Edward Herndon. And the undersigned has been ordered by said Court to advertise for said distributees to appear and make themselves parties to said suit. Said residuary estate is worth $4000 to $5000.

The following were the brothers and sisters of said Edward Herndon, Benj. Herndon, James Herndon, John Herndon, Reuben Herndon, Mary Herndon, Sarah Samuels, Elizabeth Baker and Catharine Durham.

The parties interested will please state under which brother or sister of the testator they claim; the names and residence of all the children of said brother or sister, and in the case of the death of any child, the name of the widow or husband, as the case may be, and children of the same. And as far as practicable will furnish the evidence of their relationship to said descendant.

NOTICE TO CORN GROWERS.—THE SUBscriber offers for sale a peculiar kind of Corn known as the Canada prolific Corn, which excels any grain ever before offered to the Southern Planters, both for beauty and increase. It is a handsome white corn, and produces from three to eight stalks from each grain, each stalk bearing two to three ears of Corn—and the suckers are as prolific as the original stalk, bearing an equal number of ears. I procured a small quantity of this corn through the mail, and planted nine grains in a common sandy garden, that had never received any other manure than from the stable and barn yard, and the result was eighty-six silks and fifty-eight ears! Had not the drought come upon it at the time it did, several other ears would have matured.

I will send packages of one hundred grains each, post-paid, for one dollar, to any one remitting me that sum; and I feel confident no man who invests this small sum for this Corn will regret the experiment. This is not the "Sucker Corn," that shoots at every joint—this species is as late as the common Indian corn and will grow as tall. All orders to be post-paid and addressed to ALWAYS READY FOR A TRADE.—JAMES M. Harriss, flatters himself with the belief, that, from his knowledge of mankind he knows pretty well what will suit their various wants and desires, as they travel the rough road of Jordon; and accordingly he has re-established himself in the Livery Stable business, as heretofore given notice, and has recently purchased to sell again, a lot of handsome and substantial Buggies, which for Cash will be sold at great bargains. Not particular, however, but would accommodate any one with a swap, giving new establishments for their old ones, at fair valuations; or would swap carriages for horses—or do any way to accommodate the public. He has Buggies, Carriages and horses for hire, at any and all times.

The Standard.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1854.

THE BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

The Raleigh Star, we observe, is disposed to deny that the Whig party in this State has ever assailed the basis of representation!

We do not propose to go either into the proofs or argument now—but has the Star forgotten the course on this question of Messrs. Manly and Kerr? Has the Editor lost sight of that famous "Western Address," put forth by members of the Legislature, in which the basis is so violently assailed?

The truth is, the Whig party of this State is sectional, as that party is in the Confederacy. In all its campaigns since Gov. Reid became a candidate, it has sought to arouse one portion of the State against another in the hope thereby of regaining its lost power. Its late movement for a restricted Convention to effect "a change" in the Constitution, is but a continuation of the same movement under an insidious disguise. We expect in due time to expose this movement thoroughly to the people. Our appeal is to them. We know they possess the intelligence to understand their rights, and the firmness to maintain them; and their decision, when pronounced, will be irreversible. We have no fears as to the nature of that decision; but, whatever it may be, we shall abide it cheerfully and with that sentiment of respect which is always due to the popular power.

SALE OF STATE BONDS.

We learn that the bids for the $500,000 loan, advertised by the Treasurer of this State, were opened by him on the 28th, in the presence of the Governor, Secretary and Comptroller of the State, and George W. Mordecai, President of the Bank of the State, and awarded as follows:

Carpenter, Vermilye & Co.	$ 30,000
Camman & Co.,	125,000
A. M. Burton,	5,000
J. V. Wilcox,	10,000
T. Ruffin,	8,000
John Beard, Comptroller,	43,000
W. A. Myatt,	1,000
Alex. Cunningham,	5,000
John C. Barnhardt,	2,000
John B. Oliver,	10,000
J. G. Lash,	25,000
A. & E. Kron,	1,000
J. Thompson,	235,000
	$500,000

The whole amount bid was about $2,500,000. The successful bids ranged from 105 52-100 to 104 5-100, averaging about four and a quarter per cent. premium. This premium, added to that obtained on two former sales of $500,000 each, has yielded to the Treasury upwards of $60,000.

These facts afford the strongest proof that could be offered of the hight credit which the State enjoys.

MOST GRATIFYING.

A telegraphic despatch from Colonel Diller, the efficient postmaster at Springfield, Illinois, announces that the senate of Illinois, by a vote of fourteen to eight, have passed resolutions in favor of the Nebraska and Kansas bill of Judge Douglas, and that the house of representatives of the State will follow the example of the senate. This is a bold, emphatic, and significant voice from the Prairie State, and it shows the appreciation of Judge Douglas by his fellow-citizens at home.

The great Northwest, with old Pennsylvania and New Hampshire, are standing firmly by Judge Douglas in his efforts to establish the true principle in regard to slavery. His own State is with him, and this must be to him the most gratifying fact of all.

The great Northwest, and Pennsylvania and New Hampshire, be it remembered, are Democratic; Massachusetts, New York, and other States which have taken ground against the Nebraska bill, are under Whig influences.

Americans in Rome. A letter in the Freemen's Journal, dated Rome, Jan. 12, says: "Dr. Ives and lady, of North Carolina, and Mr. Chandler Berrian, of New York, are here. Messrs. Ives and Berrian are, as you know, converts. Mrs. Ives not yet. A few evenings since I attended a soiree at the residence of Mr. Cass, our Charge d'Affaires. The party was purely American, and given as a compliment to ex-President Van Buren, who has been residing in Rome for some time. Among the guests were faces that I recognized as having seen in America. I am told that the ex-President is enquiring very earnestly into the Catholic religion. He has had several conferences with Cardinal Wiseman, who is also here, and it is not unlikely that Mr. Van Buren may become a convert. There are a great many strangers here.'

Gen. Dockery a Disorganizer. The Fayetteville Argus dwells at some length upon the posts which Gen. Dockery has sought and filled, but very carefully omits to state that the General played the disorganizer in 1845. Shall we refresh Cameron's mind on the subject? We know he is growing old, and that his memory is failing him; and it therefore devolves upon us to inform him that his second Washington, Gen. Dockery, did, in 1845, take his chances for a nomination before a Whig District Convention, and failing to get the nomination, he ran against and defeated the regular nominee, Mr. Worth, of Randolph.

So Gen. Dockery first showed his face in the House of Representatives as a disorganizer; but now, as he is a nominee, he no doubt considers Conventions just as fair things as ever were.

Heavy Robbery at Goldsborough. On Saturday evening, the 25th instant, Mr. Seymore's Watch and Jewelery Store was entered by means of a false key while the proprietor was at supper and the contents of his show case and window carried off. Mr. S. had just returned from the North with a stock of fine goods which, with a number of valuable watches left for repair, has been taken. The property lost is valued at upwards of $2,000. We regret that as yet no clue has been discovered which will lead to the detection of the daring robbers.

"The resolutions are plain and unambiguous, expressly declaring the measures that we approve and such as we condemn. There is no doubt or equivocation about them. Star."

Thus speaks the Raleigh Star of the Resolutions of the late federal Convention. Well, then, Mr. Star, what do you mean in your sixth Resolution when you say the people of the State "desire a change" in the Constitution? What sort of a change? Is that "plain and unambiguous"? Is it not, on the contrary, deceptive and calculated to mislead?

Craven County. We are requested to state that a meeting of the Democracy of Craven County will be held in Newbern on Tuesday evening the 14th inst., to appoint delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

Our friends in Carteret and Jones have held no meeting. We hope to see them in full force in the Convention.

THE VOICE OF GEORGIA.

The following Resolutions were adopted unanimously in the House, and with only three dissenting voices in the Senate of Georgia:

"The State of Georgia in solemn convention having firmly fixed herself upon the principles of the compromise measures of 1850, relating to the subject of slavery in the Territories of the United States, as a final settlement of the agitation of that question, its withdrawal from the hall of Congress, and the political arena, and its reference to the people of the territories interested therein; and distinctly recognizing in those compromise measures the doctrine that it is not competent for Congress to impose any restrictions, as to the existence of slavery among them upon the citizens moving into and settling upon the Territories of the Union, acquired or to be hereafter acquired; but that the question whether slavery shall or shall not form a part of their domestic institutions, is for them alone to determine for themselves, and her present executive having reiterated and affirmed the same policy in his inaugural address:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia, in General Assembly met, That the Legislature of Georgia, as the representatives of the people, speaking their will, and expressing their feeling, have had their confidence strengthened in the settled determination of the great body of the Northern people to carry out in good faith those principles, in the practical application of them, to the bills reported by Mr. Douglas from the Committee on Territories in the United States Senate at the present session, proposing the organization of a territorial government for the territory of Nebraska.

And be it further resolved, That our Senators in Congress be, and they are hereby instructed, and our Representatives requested to vote for, and support those principles, and use all proper means in their power for carrying them out, either as applied to the government of the territory of Nebraska, or in any other bill for Territorial government which may come before them.

Resolved further, That his Excellency, the Governor, be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress."

This is a bold, clear, unmistakable voice. It utters, no doubt, the sentiments of ninety-nine hundredths of the Southern people. It contrasts strongly with the course of the Whig leaders of this State in their late Convention, who take ground, it is true, for the doctrine of non-intervention, but who studiously avoid reference to the Nebraska bill.

☞ The Albemarle Bulletin of the 25th February, 1852, thus treated the question of a Convention for amending the Constitution. The Bulletin is a Whig paper, but its notes of warning have been unheeded by the Whig leaders:

"The Constitution is susceptible of alteration only in two ways; one by Legislative enactment, the other by a Convention of the People. As we are to be the losers by these amendments, it is our duty to determine the question, which of the two modes is the tardiest, and most uncertain in its operations? Which will keep the evil off the longest, and presents the best prospects for averting the danger entirely? The plan by Legislative enactment gives three chances of failure, and six years of time: An Amendment must pass two Legislatures, one by three-fifths, the other by two-thirds of all the members of each House, and then receive a majority of the people before it become the organic Law.

A Convention affords no such obstacles; it is more expeditious, and certain in its operations, and hence the more to be dreaded by the East.

We owe it to ourselves then to insist on the first method; and so soon as the matter is generally understood by the people, there can be no doubt of the sentiments they will entertain, or the position they must assume.

The Whig Party, is dear to us of the East; with it are connected most glorious associations of the past, and cheering hopes for the future; we have cherished its interests faithfully, fought for its principles long and well, and now most earnestly desire its success. But we trust our Western brethren will remember, that self-preservation is the first of Nature's laws; and unless they are willing to sacrifice everything to their hopes of sectional aggrandizement, we entreat them, not to enforce these new issues upon us, and warn them, that if they still remain deaf to the appeal of justice, and the voice of patriotism, on them will fall the responsibility of that certain defeat which discord will entail on the Party in the coming contest. Nothing can be accomplished without our co-operation, and we will never sustain a candidate who departs from the old principles of the Party, to support measures so insidious and dangerous in their character. The East can yield nothing more without compromising her rights and interests; the ultimatum of concession was attained in 1835, and is now to be found in the provisions of the existing Constitution: Mutual forbearance is the only neutral ground for the two sections of the State, the only thing by which harmony and unity can be secured to the Party, and its success ensured. Will Western Whigs then pertinaciously adhere to their suicidal policy? Will men, who pretend to be especially conservative in their sentiments, ruthlessly tear up the foundations of the Government, and destroy forever the prospects of their party?"

And now can Eastern Whigs, for whom the Bulletin speaks, allow themselves to be misled by the idea that the Legislature can call a restricted Convention?

We shall re-publish soon the masterly speech of the late William B. Shepard, in favor of alterations in the Constitution by Legislative enactment.

DESTRUCTIVE FRESHETS.

The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

"By accounts from the Potomac above Georgetown, I learn that water and ice are descending with fearful rapidity. Georgetown must suffer. A drover from Fairfax reports the streams swelling, with the probable destruction of bridges. In this city John Foy's new hotel, near the railroad depot, has the foundation washed away, the floor sunk, and part of the walls gone. A considerable stock of wines and liquors in the cellar, are swept off."

The freshets in this region have been almost unprecedented. We learn that bridges on Haw River, New Hope and other streams have been swept away. The Dan and Roanoke have been very high, and we learn that the Railroad and other property at Weldon have been damaged by the overflow.

"Great Freshet in James River. The Richmond Mail of yesterday represents the river higher at this time than it has been for several years, and up to 6 o'clock Monday evening, it was still rising. Several thousand dollars of merchandise were washed off at Rocketts on Sunday night. Messrs. Brown & Shook, have lost fifty baskets of champaigne, and others have had large quantities of dry goods damaged. The rising water caused a perfect stampede Monday morning among the rats that have been domiciled in the cellars adjoining Shockoe creek. The water is 18 to 20 inches deep just below Mr. Haskins store, and persons have to cross the Main street at Rocketts in vehicles. An old inhabitant of Rocketts says the water is four inches higher than ever known before. Petersburg Express.

SUPREME COURT.

This Tribunal adjourned on Wednesday last, having decided every case submitted to its consideration during the term. The following opinions were delivered on the last day:

By Pearson, J. In Hamlin vs. Mebane, in equity, from Chatham, dismissing the bill with costs.

By Battle, J. In Arrington vs. Yarbrough, in equity, from Franklin, directing the proper accounts to be taken.

☞ We are under obligations to Hon. S. A. Douglas, Hon. Thos. Ruffin, and Hon. John Kerr for reliable public documents.

State Agricultural Society. We are requested to state that a called meeting of the State Agricultural Society will be held at Raleigh on the 18th instant.

NOTICES OF NEW BOOKS.

Reason and Faith, and other Miscellanies of Henry Rogers, author of the "Eclipse of Faith." Boston, Crosby, Nichols & Co., 1853.

Two or three months ago we read this book—or rather glanced through it—with a relish that prompted us at once to give it a brief notice and commend it to others. Our time was so limited, and we were borne along by a flow of thought so rich and irresistible that in that brief notice we failed to give any more than our general impression of the excellence of its discussions, its spirit of free inquiry, and the force of its logic. In taking it up again we have had more time to pause and reflect on what so much delighted us at first; and we furnish this second notice, not to detract from what was said in the former, but, if possible, to deepen the impression of its value on others, and by giving a list of the subjects discussed, afford them an opportunity of enjoying with us a rich treat, in reading the book.

The volume, it seems, is made up of contributions to the Edinburg Review through several successive years. The essays that make it up are all valuable, though not equally so, and it is a great convenience to have them thus collected into one volume. Those on the "Life and writings of Thomas Fuller," "Andrew Marvell," and the "British Pulpit" struck us as less interesting than any in the collection. But that on the "Vanity and Glory of Literature," is worthy of the fine scholarship of the author, and presents to scholars many important lessons, both of hope and humility. The Essays on the "Genius and writings of Pascal," and on "Reason and Faith, their claims and conflicts," may in this day, when Christians have to meet their adversaries on a new arena, be read with advantage by all students of the evidences, and may go far to cure many a flashy young man in his too ready assumption of some of the unbelieving theories of our time. And the articles on "Luther's correspondence and character," is just such a tribute to the grandeur and nobleness of the great Reformer's mind and life, as we love to see. The author's views are produced in the form of an examination of Hollonis Critique upon Luther's intellect and writings. We think he demonstrates that Hollanis' "excellent and well practised judgment deserted him in in this instance." Luther's deficiencies in different respects are admitted and pointed out, and still he is exhibited as "not far behind any of those who have played illustrious parts in the world's affairs; and as leaving behind him a name, than which few have greater claims on the gratitude of mankind;" nay, Mr. Rogers well says that even "Rome owes him thanks; for whatever ameliorations have since taken place in her system, have been owing far more to him than to herself."

FREE BANKING.

As the attention of some of our statesmen and business men has of late been turned to a consideration of the advantages and disadvantages of Free Banking, we copy the following article on the subject from the Baltimore Sun. It may shed some light on the subject.

"Evils of Free Banking. The superintendent of the New York Banking Department, at Albany, has submitted a special report, made under his direction, to the Legislature of that State, on the affairs of the "Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank of Oswego." The whole report goes to show that a great abuse exists in the management of the Free Banking Law, in respect to the reception of bonds and mortgages as the basis of circulation for bank notes. These parties were industriously engaged in various financial operations to keep the circulation out. It is urged that the bond and mortgage privilege should be repealed, and none other but good stocks be taken as security. But would it not be better to go further still, for under the very loose freedom of this free banking system, wherever it is adopted, the people bid fair fair to be afflicted solely with a paper currency, to the exclusion pretty much of gold and silver? It is of unlimited expansiveness in principle, so that a party who can muster up in any way $50,000 or $100,000 in acceptable bonds or stocks, either by borrowing or purchasing, may go on to issue bank "promises to pay" to an endless extent, by buying the same amount of stocks over and over again with the very notes exchanged for them, and thus make a new issue at every turn, all on the same original $50,000 or $100,000 of real or artificial capital. Into what a pestilential "bank rag" condition the currency of the people is liable soon to get under this system, should many choose to "have a finger in the pie"—for it is open to every one who can raise the first deposit of stocks—it needs no illustration or argument to show. It was hardly therefore sound or politic to favor anything else but gold and silver as the basis of a bank note circulation, for there is no other true basis. If, however, there is to be another, the only second good foundation is the well appreciated public securities having an immediate market sale and value, with such guards and restrictions as will limit the number of banks under the system, the amount of notes issued to each concern, and also make the owners of the banks individually responsible for any possible deficiency in the ultimate value of the security. An actual and not merely nominal place of location should be required also for the banks, with places of redemption provided and made known to the public at whatever points the notes were put into circulation. As the State of Virginia countenances this species of banking, it should at least look to providing such necessary restrictions as will lessen its evils.

The Ship Building in 1853. The ship builders at this port have launched, during 1853, 60,500 tuns, and have 35,340 tuns now on the stock, as nearly as can be estimated. Forty-two steamers have been launched, and fourteen are in progress of construction. The most prominent of these are the Jamestown, the Sonora, the Charles Morgan, and the Arazaba, by Westervelt; the George Law, the Augusta, and the Knoxville, by Wm. H. Webb; the Nashville and the Cahawba, by W. Collyer; the Yankee Blade, by Perrine & Stack, and the steam yacht, North Star, by Simonson. Of craft other than steamships and steamboats, forty-four have been launched, and thirty remain on the stocks. Among those afloat we notice the clipper ships Rapid, San Francisco, Golden Gate, Sweepstakes, Kathay, Resolute, Young America, Fly Away, Panama, Wide Awake, Flying Cloud (bark), and Kate Brigham, (schooner); with the packet ships David Brown, Robert L. Lane, Calhoun, and John Bright. Some very fine ships are now on the stocks, and business is pretty brisk on all hands.

During the previous year 51,339 tuns were launched, and on Dec. 31, 1852, 21,276 tuns remained on the stocks. The following comparative table will show more fully the increase of business during the last year over the year 1852:

LAUNCHED.
No. of tuns launched in 1853	60,500
No. of tuns launched in 1852	51,339
Increase during the year 1853,	9,161
ON THE STOCKS.
No. of tuns remaining on Stocks Dec. 31, '53,	35,340
No. of tuns remaining on Stocks Dec. 31, '52,	21,266
Increase during year 1853,	14,074

This is a great gain over the year 1852. In addition to this, a number of large vessels have been contracted for, and will be commenced at an early day.

The difference between the tunnage remaining on the stocks at the close of 1851 and 1853, is as follows:

Amount of tunnage on stocks Dec. 1851,	16,830
Amount of tunnage on stocks Dec. 1853,	35,340
Difference in 1853 over 1851,	18,510

The above figures show correctly the business of ship-yards, and afford a very flattering evidence of the rapid extensions of the commerce of our country. Boston Post.

Correspondence of the North-Carolina Standard

Frog Town, Feb. 27, 1854.

Gen'l. "Duckery" in the Field!—Great Enthusiasm—Songs for the People, written by "responsible" authors—Whig Procession, en route for the seat of ——— our candidate!

Editor Standard: The News of the nomination of Gineral Alfred M. Duckery reached Frog Town on the evening of the 25th inst., whereupon the city council ordered two planks to be split, and torches made thereof, and called a meeting of the neighborhood to take into consideration the importance of the occasion! Bells were rung, and proclamation made from the top "rider" of a four rail fence. The close of twilight, and the free use of four tallow candles brought together the free and independent Whig voters of the borough of Frog Town, to the number of a good many. The Mayor took the chair, and introduced to the meeting Mr. Gilpin, in whose charge the announcement of this important nomination was confided by the "Raleigh Clique" for the peeple of Frog Town.

Mr. Gilpin took off his hat, wiped his nose—with his shirt sleeve, and proceeded—

Mr. President and fel-low-citizens: Woried down by fatigue, and mighty nigh dead for something to eat, after a hard days ride of 16 and a half miles over the beatenest road this side of tare river, I feel proud to be the barrier of despatches of such moment to sovereign voters! [Applause!] It has been my privilege to be one of the fortinate few who was left of that gallant band of inwincibles of 1852, to meet at the City of Raleigh to nominate a candidate for the exercise of your righteous sufferings! [Great applause.] Face to face, I have stood with the old and the young Americas of Whiggery in consultation for the welfare of our party. Talent and oratory were brought to bear agin the known wishes of the freemen of Frog Town, but your delegate stood agin 'em, nor never budged a step. [Shouts of "hurra."] Two whole days we were locked up together, 'liberating and changing sentiments, and had nothing to go on but bread and water! The memory of our Revolutionary fathers, as how they toddled over the plains and mountains of Pennsylvania, with their feet blood-shot, and their eyes red with rath, was nothing to compare with the difficulties of them two days, and the night of our encampment! Trouble huvored over the walls of the House of Commons, and the enemy was shut in thar with us! In vain did the Convention call for help—no help was thar, but consternation "star"-ed us in the face. A Miller was asked if he wanted toll? What was the reply? Why, Mr. President, he said, "I toled you I would'nt sarve!" [Death-like silence.] Another ballit was made, and a man named Davis wern't chose. Agin, the Cheerman invoked peace—and for the therd time they comed to order, and the name of Gineral Duckery, the waggin-boy of Richmond was rungged upon our ears with wonderful 'plause.' [Long and deafening applause.] Yes, fellow-citizens of Frog Town, it did seem to me that upon the 'nouncement of his name, I could hear nigh about 3000 little boys popping thur whoops! [Applause.] Sich a cracking was never heared since the burning of our shingle pile. [Great laughter.] But it has been whispered in my hat, by a "responsible" individual, that our proceedings on that occasion have been misrepresented by our neighbor Mr. About. If such be the case, he ar a mean, sneaking eavesdrapper, and you better keep your smoke-houses locked. If he did hear what was said, some Whig told him, or he was lying under the bench in the gallery. [Applause.]

But, fellow-citizens, the Gineral is in the field. He is the waggin-boy; and, whether he is elected, or whether he is beat, he is kind at his house, and gives folks plenty victuals when they go to see him.

Mr. Snub said he had some poetry set to the tune of "If I had a Donkey what would'nt go," which he would sing on this joyous occasion.

If I had a tune what would'nt go,
I'd pop my whip, and sing heigh-ho!
I'd tie on a cracker of silk and cotton,
And shout aloud for Gin'ril Duckery!

Chorus—Gee-up, gee-up, you all unlucky,
Pop your whip for Gin'ril Duckery!

This song was received with deafening applause, and loud and repeated calls were made on the gentleman to repeat it. He said he would be happy to do so, but could not recollect it.

The Mayor said it devolved on him to communicate the Gineral's nomination to him at his residence in Richmond. And he would appoint a delegation of fifty to take up the glorious news, and in order that it shall go up in good old fashioned style, he had prepared the following programme:

Mayor.
Horse cart. | Four Wheel Waggin. | Horse cart.
Pop Whip.
"Strong man" with "powerful intellect,"
Bearing Despatch.
Independent volunteers of Frog Town.
Waggin and Whip.
Pine plank torches, with tar on the ends.
Pop Whip.
Waggin boy with boots on.
Map of the public lands,
Borne by the "responsible Whigs."
A new Pop Whip with the cracker off.
Waggin tongue,
Borne on the shoulders of a busted barrel.
More Music.
Thro' the snout of a broken tea-pot!
Waggin Whip.

The Mayor submitted the above programme with unbroken confidence in the ability of Whigs to carry it out to the letter. He said it was true that difficulties lay in their path—that deep waters and muddy roads were to be traveled; but take courage, there is majic in the pop of that old whip, and he could'nt see any danger for a regular mire down. Go, now, my good fellows, and as you travel, remember that the enemy is on the road, and in the chapparel, and mind what you are

ABOUT.

Washington Matters, &c.

Washington, Feb. 27. A Democratic caucus will be held to-morrow evening for the nomination of a candidate for printer of the House of Representatives in place of Gen. Armstrong deceased. Mr. Forney will be a candidate.

The Senate has confirmed as Consuls, S. C. Pelkiston, of Ky., to Tehuantepec; Francis M. Ellis, of Ohio, to Buenos Ayres, and F. B. Wells of New York, to Bermuda.

The amount of public debt redeemed during the past week was $186,300.

The Spiritual Rappers are holding a convention here, over which Senator Talmadge is presiding. The sessions are private.

It is now clearly ascertained that seventeen Senators from non-slaveholding States are in favor of the Nebraska bill.

Washington Affairs.

Washington, Feb. 26. The protest of the English and French Ministers against American privateers, is the principal topic of conversation. Mr. Marcy's reply has not transpired, but he will probably pursue a similar course as towards the Cuba fillibusters.

It is reported that Senator Crittenden has declared in favor of the Nebraska Bill.

The funeral of General Armstrong to-day was attended by the President, Cabinet, and a large concourse.

The Gardiner case will go to the jury about the middle of next week.

An American Telegraphic Confederation will shortly meet here, for what object it is not known.

Arrival of the Steamer Isabel.

Charleston, Feb. 25th. The steamer Isabel, Captain Rollins, arrived, with Havana and Key West dates to the 22d.

The American sailors, so long confined, had, through the exertions of Mr. Robertson, acting U. S. Consul, been liberated.

Reports were current of a negro insurrection eastward of Cardenas.

A change of troops had been unexpectedly made at Puerto Principe.

Havana was quiet. A French fleet had made its appearance.

Havana Markets. Sugars were dull for want of shipping. Freights to England £5. Flour scarce; Rice and Lard improving. Box Shoots badly wanted.

SOULS, NOT STATIONS.

Who shall judge a man from manners?
Who shall know him by his dress?
Paupers may be fit for princes,
Princess fit for something less.
Crumbled shirt and dirty jacket
May beclothe the golden ore,
Of the deepest thoughts and feelings—
Satin vest could do no more.

There are springs of crystal nectar
Ever swelling out of stone,
There are purple buds and golden,
Hidden, crushed and over grown;
God who counts by souls, not dresses,
Loves and prospers you and me,
While he values thrones, the highest,
But as pebbles in the sea.

Man, upraised above his fellows,
Oft forgets his fellow; then
Masters—rulers—lords—remember
That your meanest hands are men!
Men by labour, men by feeling,
Men by thought and men by fame,
Claiming equal rights to sunshine
In a man's ennobled name.

There are foam-embroidered oceans;
There are little weed-clad rills,
There are little inch high saplings,
There are cedars on the hills.
But God who counts by souls, not stations,
Loves and prospers you and me,
For to him all vain distinctions
Are as pebbles in the sea.

Toiling hands alone are builders
Of a nation's wealth and fame;
Titled laziness is pensioned,
Fed and fattened on the same,
By the sweat of other's foreheads,
Living only to rejoice,
While the poor man's outraged freedom
Vainly lifteth up its voice.

But truth and justice are eternal,
Born with loveliness and light,
And sunset's wrongs shall never prosper,
Where there is a sunny right;
And God, whose world-heard voice is singing
Boundless love to you and me,
Will sink oppression with its titles,
As the pebbles of the sea.

What are Printers made of? More than once we have had occasion to regard printers as strange and more than ordinary men. An experience of some fifteen years with the craft, has offered innumerable opportunities to find them out, and study in a measure their "natural history." Printers are to a greater extent than any other class of professional men, migratory. The printing office, of itself, being a literary Institute, few can abide or labor long in it without getting somewhat enlightened upon the historical, scientific and general intelligence of the day, and about as soon as the apprentice gets into his freedom suit, or his head crammed with knowledge of the craft, his ambition tends to go out into the wide, wide world, and see the works of art and nature he has read, and enabled others to read about. Few seem bent on setting down to make a fortune, and the expense of a professional fit-out being a mere song, or rather a piece of brass rule, which serves as a sort of cabalistic sign to the brotherhood scattered over creation, a clean dickey, light heart, and equally hefted pocket book, the printer goes on his way of exploration and adventure. Posted up in "price currents," he can talk business with the merchant or planter; versed in general statistics of the nation, he can hold his own with your country politician, and for whom, if he takes a notion, he can set down in a flourishing settlement, start a paper, replenish his purse and wardrobe, write and set up patriotic leaders and irresistible puffs, which sends his patron to Congress or the Legislature. He has long been accustomed to "tattle," "squibs," "poetic gems," "the ladies department," &c., and proves quite at home in conversational circles, where he can illuminate old ladies, the girls and children, equal to a pedagogue, Hood's works, Baron Munchausen or Robinson Crusoe.

He can talk horse or horned cattle, all over the fields of agriculture. He has had many cases in his time to attend to, such as law reports, and wonderful cures, and hence, is something versed in law and physic. Having set up and proved astronomical tables, he knows something, also, about the starry heavens, waters and winds. And, indeed, not to be too prolix, the printer, if a thorough one, is a man of science as well as art, and backed by his collegiate education, his views expanded by travel, and himself made practical by the vicissitudes of a miscellaneous and pregrinating life, he is often a living wonder, and most always a whole history of human nature—under a hat.

In this office are some twenty printers engaged; only look at them! In ages ranging from twenty to forty; in size and complexion, from the ordinary stout, (we never knew a fat printer,) to some that might crawl through a greased flute; some as white as Circassians, and others brown or rosy—your "Georgia Cracker," or Pennsylvania Publican. Some bearded like the Pard, others smooth-faced as the Greek Slave. One has traveled all over the North American continent, hunted bears in Arkansas, and the wild horse in the pampas of South America; another has been out on the broad ocean, and seen "life before the mast"; another graduated at West Point, served in the army, and accompanied Col. Doniphan in his Zenophenic grand campaign all over New Mexico. What a book he can write! Another has kept tavern, sold goods at auction, traveled over the United States several times, been well off and been broken—often. Two have been "on the stage," a profession printers are much addicted to; for about half the actors on the American boards were printers. One, we believe, has preached sermons, and another has lectured to crowded houses. Another has served in Mexico with Gen. Scott. A sixth has been stump orator, member of the Legislature "out West," and fought a duel, we believe. Three have practiced medicine, kept store, dealt in horses, cotton and negroes. Two have held municipal offices. Four or five have been officers and privates in various military companies. One served with Gen. Houston in the Texan revolution, and one in the Canadian rebellion. Six or eight have edited and published newspapers in various parts of the United States. One has been first officer of a packet on the "ragin' canawl." One was wounded—leg off—at the storming of Monterey. Another has clerked on a Mississippi steamer, was blown up and slightly killed. Some are or have been married; some are old bachelors. All have seen more or less of life, and its changeable scenes. They are all live men, good practical printers, speak various languages, and form a newspaper corps hard to surpass or equal. Cincinnati Commercial.

For the Standard.

Mr. Holden: While we are endeavoring to select a candidate for the next Gubernatorial campaign, permit me to suggest the name of Samuel J. Person, of New Hanover, as highly worthy and capable of filling the office in question. Col. Person is a man of distinguished ability; he is a Democrat firm and unvarying, tried and sound, and would, were he elected, defend and maintain Democratic principles as well as the rights of the people, Whig and Democratic, to the utmost of his power. He would make a good run in the Cape Fear region and no doubt throughout the State. Richmond.

Richmond and Danville Railroad. Mr. A. T. D. Gifford, of the Board of Directors, has been appointed President of this comprny until the Stockholders shall elect a President.

Nearly all Gone. General Houston says that of three hundred members of Congress in attendance when the Missouri Compromise was passed, thirty-three years ago, only three remain—Benton, Everett and himself.

Nomination. The Democratic State Convention, of Connecticut, has nominated Hon. Samuel Ingraham for Governor.

MARRIED.

NO. 1 SUPERPHOSPHATE OF LIME.—This valuable fertilizer has been used for several years in England and other parts of Europe, and, next to Guano, holds the highest rank in popularity, and the extent to which it is used among farmers. Its introduction in this country has been more recent; but the progress it has made in the estimation of the public has not been less marked or successful than abroad. It is now extensively used throughout the Northern States, after a full trial and investigation of its merits; and it is rapidly becoming, like its predecessor, Guano, a favorite manure at the South and West.

It is composed of crushed or ground bones, decomposed by the addition of about one fifth their weight of sulphuric acid, diluted with water, to which is added a due proportion of guano and sulphate of ammonia. The latter is the active and one of the most efficient agents in the best Peruvian Guano.

It is suited to any soil in which there is not already a full supply of the phosphates, which is seldom the case. All crops are benefited by its application.

For sale in large or small quantities, in bags of 150 lbs. each. No charge for packages. All bags will be branded "C. B. De Burg, No. 1 Superphosphate of Lime."

PERUVIAN GUANO of best quality.

NORTH-CAROLINA & NORFOLK.—THE PRACTICAL HATTERS would respectfully call the attention of the "Trade" and "Dealers" to their stock of SPRING AND SUMMER HATS, the largest and best that has ever been offered in Norfolk, and not surpassed by any, and at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction. They are confident that Merchants will find it to their advantage to call before making their purchases. Those that are willing to extend to us their patronage may rely on having Goods, whether of our own Manufacture or Imported, as Fashionable, Fine and Cheap as any Northern Jobber. We earnestly request Merchants to call and be convinced that we are prepared and will furnish every thing in our line on the best terms.
Ladies' and Misses' Bonnets in great variety. Canes and Umbrellas wholesale.

CEPHALOMETRON!

This beautiful instrument is considered one of the greatest and most useful inventions of the age. It would be impossible, by the minutest description, to give a correct idea of its utility. Hats made by it will fit the most difficult heads, conforming to every protuberance and depression of the cranium, thus preventing the unpleasant feeling of a new Hat and painful headache. We could give you certificates of Physicians and the experience of the Trade, but prefer that all may examine for themselves. No one can properly appreciate its advantages without having one of our superior Hats.
☞ Hats made to order in the most fashionable manner, and without extra charge.

PETERSBURG CLOTHING BAZAAR.—The subscribers having purchased the entire interest of N. Perry in the above celebrated establishment, respectfully announce to the citizens of North-Carolina that they intend to relax no effort to retain the liberal patronage heretofore received from the numerous customers of the Bazaar in the Old North State.
Manufacturing as we do all our own CLOTHING, and one of the firm being constantly in the market, thus having facilities for purchasing our Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., at first hands, and consequently at the lowest rates, we are enabled to compete in prices with Northern houses, while our garments in point of style and workmanship, are not excelled by those of any other house in the State.
It is unnecessary to enumerate the articles of which our stock is composed; suffice it to say that in our rooms may be found every thing pertaining to men's wear, and furnishing goods of the most recent style and in great variety.
Our Custom Department is constantly supplied with the most desirable goods, and those preferring their garments made to order, can here find a large assortment to select from, and with an efficient force of workmen we can get up a single garment or an entire suit at very short notice. A good fit and perfect satisfaction guarantied in every instance.
OUR WHOLESALE ROOMS. Merchants visiting the City should not fail to look through our stock, as we have opened an exclusive Wholesale Room, and manufacture largely, expressly for this branch of our trade.

PUBLIC LANDS.

The public lands belonging to the General Government are situated,—1st. Within the limits of the United States, as defined by the treaty of 1783, and are embraced by the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and that part of Minesota east of the Mississippi River, all of which have been formed out of the Northwestern Territory, as conveyed with certain reservations to the United States by New York in 1781, by Virginia in 1784, by Massachusetts in 1785, and by Connecticut in 1786; also the lands within the boundaries of the States of Mississippi and Alabama north of 31 deg. north latitude, as conveyed to the United States by Georgia in 1802. 2d. Within the Territories of Orleans and Louisiana, as acquired from France by the treaty of 1803, including the portion of the States of Alabama and Mississippi south of 31 deg.; the whole of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, and that portion of Minesota west of the Mississippi River; the Indian Territory; the district called Nebraska; the Territory of Oregon, and the region lying between Oregon and Minesota, north of 42 deg. and south of 49 deg. north latitude. 3d. Within the State of Florida, as obtained from Spain by the treaty of 1819. 4th. In New Mexico and California, as acquired from Mexico by the treaty of 1848.

Within the limits recognized by these treaties and cessions, the public lands covered an estimated area of 1,584,000,000 acres. Exclusive of the lands in Oregon, California, New Mexico, Utah, the Indian and Nebraska Territories, the entire area of the public domain is stated, after a careful examination, to have been 424,103,750 acres. About one-fourth of this, up to November 30th, 1850, had been sold, and $135,339,092 received therefor. The aggregate outlay o every kind upon these lands to the same date, including cost of purchase, of surveying, and of selling, was $74,957,879, leaving as net profit to the government $60,381,213, or an annual average of nearly a million of dollars for the last 50 years. If there should be added to this, at the rate of $1.25 per acre, the value of the land granted for bounties, schools, internal improvements, &c., it would amount to nearly double the above sum. The average cost per acre to the government of acquiring title, &c., to the lands is 14.41 cents; o survey, 2.07 cents; of selling and managing, 5.32 cents; in all 21.80 cents; while it receives $1.25 per acre, or a net profit on each acre sold of $1.032.

The whole number of warrants for Mexican bounty land claims issued to November 1, 1851, is 80,781, of which 66,618 have been located, and 66,200 have been patented. The whole number of warrants issued under the general bounty-land aw of September 28, 1850, up to November 1, 1851, is 54,201. Of these, 3,708 have been located and returned, and 1,950 patented.

The following table shows the sales of public lands and the proceeds thereof from the year 1833 to 1850, inclusive. Full details of the present condition of the public lands, and of the various grants and donations thereof for purposes of education and of internal improvement, are given in the American Almanac for 1850, pp. 180 et seq.
